Guidance

NOTE: Before presenting this lesson, instructors must thoroughly prepare by studying this lesson and identified reference material.

Before class--

- Read and study all TSP material and be ready to conduct the class.
- This TSP has questions throughout to check learning or generate discussion among the group members. You may add any questions you deem necessary to bring a point across to the group or expand on any matter discussed.
- You must know the information in this TSP well enough to teach from it, not read from it.
- This TSP presents references at the beginning of some of the paragraphs. This allows you to inform your students of where they should look in the reference to follow your instruction.

During class--

- Provide the students PE-1, PE-2, PE-3, and PE-4 in Appendix C.
- Detail one soldier to be a demonstrator, and provide him with the following equipment for the instruction of conducting precombat checks of personnel. Insure soldier wears the equipment as prescribed by the NCOA SOP. Provide demonstrator camouflage sticks and material to camouflage his weapon and helmet.
- Helmet, ballistic with camouflage cover.
- Canteen, 1 quart and cover with water (2 each).
- Case of small arms (2 each).
- Magazines (6) (blank ammunition not required).
- Pistol belt, suspenders, and first-aid pouch.
- Protective mask with decontamination kit.
- Rifle, rubber or M16A2.

After class--

- Collect all recoverable materials after the examination for this lesson.

SECTION II. INTRODUCTION

Method of Instruction: Conference / Discussion
 Technique of Delivery: Small Group Instruction (SGI)
 Instructor to Student Ratio is: 1:8
 Time of Instruction: 5 mins
 Media: None

Motivator

To help prepare and develop your spirit of warrior ethos--standing ready to deploy, engage, and destroy the enemy--you will learn that one of the warrior leader's critical roles is receiving and issuing combat orders. Warriors must fight, survive, and win on the battlefield. You will have to shoot, move, communicate, secure and sustain, and do it quickly. To accomplish this, you will receive and issue combat orders almost constantly. The way you receive, interpret, and issue these orders can determine whether you and your fellow warriors survive or die. These orders must be simple, direct, complete, and timely. You must be consistent and thorough; because the way your soldiers execute--based on the orders you give--will have a definite impact on the success or failure of your missions and contribute to the warrior ethos.

Terminal Learning Objective

NOTE: Inform the students of the following Terminal Learning Objective requirements. At the completion of this lesson, you [the student] will:

Action:	Implement a squad level combat order.
Conditions:	In a classroom environment, culminating in a situational training exercise, and given a platoon operation order in a simulated combat condition.
Standards:	Implemented a squad level combat order by-- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Conducting troop-leading procedures. • Ensuring the conduct of precombat checks. • Identifying three types of combat orders: Operation order (OPORD), Warning order (WARNO), and Fragmentary order (FRAGO). • Interpreting the commander's intent of a combat order IAW FM 7-8.

Safety Requirements

Instructors act as safety instructors during the conduct of all training. Ensure students observe safe practices at all times. If conducting the practical exercise outside, take precautions dependent on the weather. Training area should be generally flat and free from debris.

Risk Assessment Level	Low. Determined by instructor.
Environmental Considerations	NOTE: It is the responsibility of all soldiers and DA civilians to protect the environment from damage. None
Evaluation	You will take a written examination. The examination will contain questions from this lesson. You must correctly answer 70 percent or more of the questions on the examination to receive a GO. NOTE: Inform the students where their examinations will take place as posted on the training schedule and when they will receive feedback on the tests. Include any retest information. During this lesson you will complete four practical exercises. The first PE will evaluate your ability to conduct precombat checks. You will perform this PE prior to and during the situational training exercise (STX). The second PE will evaluate your ability to extract a squad order from the platoon order. The third PE will evaluate your ability to determine the commander's intent from the operation order, and the fourth PE will evaluate your ability to extract a squad fragmentary order from the platoon's fragmentary order. The PEs will not affect your academic rating for the course. During the field training exercise, your ability to interpret and issue combat orders and to conduct troop-leading procedures is part of your demonstrated leadership evaluation.
Instructional Lead-In	To be an effective leader, you must plan, prepare, and coordinate for a mission. In combat you will be responsible for planning and executing a combat mission. Knowing how to prepare and issue combat orders will help you be successful as a leader and help in strengthening your warrior ethos of deploying, engaging, and destroying the enemy. During this lesson we will discuss three types of combat orders-- warning order (WARNO), operation order (OPORD), and fragmentary order (FRAGO). Our objective is to provide you with an understanding of combat orders and procedures for issuing these orders. We'll also show you a valuable tool as a leader by discussing troop-leading procedures. Troop-leading procedures help ensure you don't overlook anything important when preparing for any type of tactical mission. Troop-leading procedures will serve as the basis for your tactical leadership evaluation.
